

BROOKLYN PRIMARIES HELD.

THERE WERE A FEW LIVELY CONTESTS.

OVER 200 MEMBERS SENT TO THE GENERAL COMMITTEE-WARD ELECTIONS.

The annual Republican primaries to elect officers of ward and town associations and delegates to the Republican General Committee for 1893 in place of those whose terms expire with the year were held in Brooklyn and its suburbs last evening. In several of the wards there was great interest owing to contests for some of the offices to be filled, and a large vote was cast. In the Twenty-third Ward, the vote was increased by the Aldermen last summer by a change of ward boundaries, which added to it a considerable section from the Twenty-fifth Ward, the polls were open twelve hours, from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. The regular ticket, supported by Internal Revenue Collector Nathan and his friends, was opposed chiefly by the enrolled Republicans in the annexed territory, but as a large number of them had not been transferred by name to the Twenty-third Ward Association's roll-book they could not vote. The regular ticket had much stronger support than the opposition. The voters who were excluded from the primary said that it was a piece of sharp practice to hold the primaries the night before the ward meetings for the month, when an opportunity would have been afforded to have their names enrolled. The same rule worked the other way in the Ninth Ward, for there the Nathan adherents from the annexed portion of the Twenty-second Ward found that they were not permitted to vote, as they were not enrolled.

In several wards where contests were over a part of the officers to be filled, James W. Calhoun was opposed by a portion of the membership of the Third Ward Association for secretary, but succeeded in defeating Samuel Johnson. In the Ninth Ward William O. Tate, for president of the ward association was on both tickets, and Warren C. Treadwell, secretary of the General Committee, had the same good fortune, and so insured his election as a delegate. A compromise ticket was agreed upon in the Tenth Ward last week. It was opposed, however, by some of the members of the association, and the election was held. The ticket was defeated. There was only one ticket at the First Ward primary, and Henry L. Palmer was re-elected president of the association. Emil Baker succeeded George Van Nostrand as secretary. Naval Officer Willis was re-elected to the General Committee. In the Third Ward M. J. Dady was elected president. There were two tickets in the Fourth Ward. William Scully, who headed the ticket supported by the adherents of Senator Fitch, defeated William L. Beattie for president by a vote of 127 to 106. The delegates to the General Committee elected were Addison W. Hallack, Cassius L. Clair, James Shedy, Henry W. Smith, William F. Parham.

In the Seventh Ward the contest was upon the reorganization. The faction which nominated Horace E. Dresser for president issued a circular calling upon voters to support immediate, thorough and practical reorganization of the party. Delmore Elwell, the present president of the ward association, was a candidate for re-election, but was defeated. The primary in the Twenty-first Ward was in progress from noon until 9 p. m., and the contest was waged between the adherents of Postmaster Collins, whose ticket was headed by Daniel Acker for president, and the supporters of the Dunwell faction, whose candidate for president was Thomas Mulligan. The ticket headed by Acker won by six votes. At no time in the history of the Twenty-first Ward was there any danger that the National ticket would be elected. Despite the efforts of the opposing faction, it won by 62 to 168 for the opposition.

There were contests of minor importance in a number of other wards, but they were of no special significance. There are 393 delegates to the general committee, and over 200 were elected last evening to fill the places of those who were elected in the last year. The delegates to the general committee were elected last evening. The new committee will be organized on the second Tuesday in January for organization.

AN INDIGNANT CHICAGO JUDGE.

HE CHARACTERIZES A JURY'S FINDING AS MONSTROUS AND REVOLTING. LETS IT ASIDE AND PUNISHES NINE JURORS.

Chicago, Dec. 19 (Special).—Nine men walked out of Judge Brennan's court-room today, looking dejectedly sheepish. They were members of a jury, and had just been fined $10 each and received a most scathing censure from the court. The men were included in a jury to try the case of Mrs. Emma Allen, who sued for damages for the death of her daughter Mabel, a little girl nine years of age. The jury found the defendants responsible for the death of the child and awarded $10,000 damages. The judge, however, was so indignant at the verdict that he set it aside and punished the jury. He fined each juror $10 and ordered them to be imprisoned for ten days. The judge's action was based on his belief that the jury's verdict was monstrous and revolting. He said that the jury had been influenced by the testimony of the plaintiff's witnesses, and that they had not given proper weight to the evidence of the defense. He said that the jury's verdict was a disgrace to the court and to the law.

Chicago, Dec. 19 (Special).—The question of closing the World's Fair on Sunday has been taken into the courts in rather a unique form. The matter came up in connection with a bill filed last October by the South Shore Transportation Company, an organization composed of the various steamship companies doing business at the foot of Van Ness-st. The South Park commissioners, the City of Chicago, the Illinois Central Railroad Company and the World's Columbian Exposition were made parties to the bill. According to the bill, the only relief sought at that time was to enjoin the defendants from preventing the company from landing their boats at the World's Fair grounds. Today the attorney for the transportation company asked leave to amend the prayer of the bill by adding to the application the following: "And from closing the Jackson Park on Sunday, and on said day excluding the public and your subject, however, from the use of said park on Sunday, as the public and your subject are charged to use said park on Sunday, the same as is charged for each and every day of the week." Judge Taylor allowed this amendment to be made, and it brings directly to issue the question whether the World's Fair people, or even the Government, has the right to close the grounds on Sunday. The bill on which this important question will be met alleges that the South Park Commission holds the property in trust for the people, and it cannot give the use of the land to any corporation to the exclusion of the public.

CAN THEY CLOSE THE FAIR ON SUNDAY?

THE COURTS MAY DECIDE THE QUESTION—THE FIRST SOUVENIR COINS.

Chicago, Dec. 19 (Special).—The question of closing the World's Fair on Sunday has been taken into the courts in rather a unique form. The matter came up in connection with a bill filed last October by the South Shore Transportation Company, an organization composed of the various steamship companies doing business at the foot of Van Ness-st. The first shipment of the Columbian souvenir coins was delivered at the World's Fair headquarters today, and the first keg was opened in the presence of officers of the Exposition, several bank messengers and other interested persons. This keg was the one marked "special," which contained the first coins struck off, known as the "10,000 beauty," the 400th coin, the 1492nd coin and the 1892nd one that came from the dies. President Hiram Johnson opened the keg and delivered the coins to the representative of the Remington-Union people, and received for them the sum of $10,000. The coin was placed in a little glass box, the cover of which was sealed with the official seal of the Exposition.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Secretary Charles Foster today advised the World's Columbian Exposition that he has transmitted to the First Auditor of the Treasury vouchers in favor of the Exposition for $356,500, which WILL COVER ALL THE SOUVENIR COINS MINTED UP TO DECEMBER 22.

He has directed that various drafts be forwarded to the First Auditor of the Treasury, in time for sale as Christmas souvenirs.

MR. CROKER'S MODESTY.

HE SAYS HE WANTS NO PATRONAGE.

TAMMANY HALL WILL ASK NOTHING OF MR. CLEVELAND—A GOOD REASON WHY.

Richard Croker made the remarkable statement yesterday that Tammany Hall would ask for no offices from Mr. Cleveland. "Not only will nothing in the way of patronage be asked by the Tammany Hall organization," said Mr. Croker, "but so far as I am concerned I would do anything in my power to relieve Mr. Cleveland from the embarrassment in the distribution of patronage to the city and State. No matter who Mr. Cleveland's appointees shall be Tammany Hall will acquiesce in his judgment, and will support his Administration as loyally as it supported him at the polls. It is absurd to say that any man who calls himself a Democrat would be found putting obstacles in the way of the success of the coming Administration. Any man who undertakes such a course will get no countenance from Tammany Hall. He will find that he is only injuring himself."

When he was asked if he had made any suggestions regarding the composition of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet, or other important appointments, Mr. Croker replied most positively in the negative. "Mr. Cleveland will select his own Cabinet," added Mr. Croker, "and whoever he may choose will be most heartily endorsed by Tammany Hall."

Several prominent Democrats who had heard of Mr. Croker's decision yesterday expressed the opinion that he was setting his house in order and getting ready for the inevitable. It has been "in the air" for several days that Mr. Cleveland has made up his mind to reward his Mugwump and Anti-Snapper friends with the best Federal offices in his gift, no matter how much Hill and Tammany people may "kick." One evidence of this was referred to by a well posted politician last evening who said that "tips" had gone straight from the house where Mr. Cleveland lives in West Fifty-first-st. and from his law-office in the M.H. building to up-country aspirants for local Federal offices, such as postmastercies, collectorships and other places of supposed honor and profit, that their proper course, if they wanted to secure success, would be to secure the backing of certain well-known Anti-Snapper chiefs. Among the names of the latter said to have been mentioned by Mr. Croker were those of Judge D. C. Herrick, of Albany; ex-Mayor William R. Grace and Frederic R. Condit, of New York City; Robert A. Maxwell, of Albany, who was state superintendent of insurance under Mr. Cleveland when he was Governor; Smith M. Wood, of Plattsburgh; William A. Toucher, of Oswego; and Mayor Bishop and Franklin D. Locke, of Buffalo. If these men, as is now believed, are the ones to be invested with the power to decide who shall have the offices in their respective political districts, it may as well be understood first and last that the Snapper stripe of Democrat will fair badly in the distribution.

"Croker has found out," said a Mugwump of the Reform Club, last evening, "that Mr. Cleveland will stand by the men who made his nomination possible—the men of the Syracuse Convention, if you please—and he has already determined to put on the best face possible and declare that Tammany wants no offices and will be perfectly satisfied with anything Mr. Cleveland may do about patronage. It is a cunning move on his part, but what else could he do?"

A report which many Democrats who think now are in Mr. Cleveland's confidence believe is that Robert A. Maxwell, who was re-elected to the office of Insurance Commissioner, has been retained by Hill when Mr. Cleveland was sworn in. Mr. Hill could view such an appointment in any other light than a declaration of war his friends will find it difficult to explain.

A Tammany warrior of excellent standing in the city, when told last evening of Mr. Croker's declaration that Tammany would ask for nothing from Mr. Cleveland, said that Tammany would be greatly acquiescent in all his appointments, showed great surprise.

"Perhaps it's so," he said, after rubbing his forehead with a "g." "May be it's the best policy to ask for nothing. People sometimes get more in that way than they expect. But I don't think it's the best policy. I can't stand this much longer. This man goes around talking about me and leaving me no reputation except, perhaps, that of a man who has been a snapper. I don't want to get out of my head, and in a moment of insanity he might kill me."

Later tonight the investigation of the city treasury by the State Comptroller and the banks holding city deposits. As a result of this searching inquiry an estimate of the city's financial condition will be made. It is believed that the city's financial condition is not as good as it appears. The city's revenue is falling short, and the city's expenses are increasing. The city's financial condition is a matter of great importance to the city's residents, and it is hoped that the investigation will result in a more efficient management of the city's finances.

THE CATHOLIC CONTROVERSIES.

DISCUSSING MONSIGNOR SATOLLI, DR. McGLYNN AND OTHERS.

There are no new developments in Roman Catholic affairs resulting from the visit of Monsignor Satolli to this country. His powers are now pretty well understood, and Catholics wish to wait until he makes use of them. However, there is much talk about the rumors that Dr. Burdett and Father Ducey are to receive the title of Monsignor and that Dr. McGlynn is to be retained. Many Catholics are skeptical of these reports, and they believe that the rumors are true, because they think that the three priests mentioned have been treated harshly. These priests and laymen say that the friends of Dr. McGlynn will surely get him back into the Church, because they have succeeded in presenting his case in its true light to the Pope. They say that the Pope has instructed Monsignor Satolli to reopen the case of Dr. McGlynn. If the case is reopened, they believe that Dr. McGlynn will be reinstated. It is also believed by McGlynn will surely get him back into the Church, because they have succeeded in presenting his case in its true light to the Pope.
